5 下の英文を読んで、次のページの(1)~(4)の問いに答えなさい。

Mika is a student at Aoba Junior High School. She is a member of the *brass band club and practices the organ hard every day. Last autumn, her *advisor's teacher said, "I have to choose a new leader today. Who should I choose as a leader?" One person said, "I think Mika is the best." Everyone agreed with that opinion. Mika said, "OK, I'll do my best."

A week later, Mika told club members, "Our goal is to win the gold medal at the next tournament. To do that, we have to decide which song to play." However, the members' ideas were all different. She was *in trouble and *consulted with her teacher. The teacher said, "I think it's difficult for everyone to be happy. I think you should decide on a song that you like."

In the *discussion the next day, the song to play was decided.

Mika practiced hard in the brass band until six o'clock every day. After that, she wrote a *diary of the brass band by herself from seven to eight. She always started her homework after nine. She told her mother, "I'm too busy. I don't want to be a leader *anymore." At that time her mother said, "You can learn a lot from this experience. I am *confident that this will be a good experience for your future. I support you." Mika said, "OK. I feel better. I think it's a difficult job to be a leader, but I'll do it. I'll practice more so I don't make mistakes in my part of the organ. " "I'm glad to hear that. I'm sure you can be a good leader," her mother said with a smile.

Unfortunately, she couldn't win the gold medal at the tournament. She was very shocked. She*apologized to the members for not being able to win the gold medal. However, the members said to Mika, "I'm glad Mika was the leader. Thank you for *taking on the difficult position." Mika was happy to take on the leader, *though it was difficult.
